CABLE ADDRESS: MUSART CLEVELAND

The French government has made it possible for us to place on exhibition at The Cleveland Museum of Art the famous "Portrait of the Artist's Mother" by James A. McNeill Whistler. Hundreds of thousands of Americans have visited this picture at the Louvre in Paris, and during the past summer at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago.

It will come directly from Chicago to Cleveland at the close of the Fair, and will be here from November 3rd through November 29th. With it will be shown other works by Whistler, paintings, etchings, lithographs and drawings.

We feel that the popularity of the Whistler portrait will attract many visitors from nearby towns and we shall greatly appreciate the courtesy of having you place the small posters we are sending you where they may be seen by persons in your community who may be interested.

The Museum is open daily from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., Wednesdays 9 A.M. to 10 P.M., and Sundays from 1 to 10 P.M. Admission is free on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays and on Fridays from 7 to 10 P.M.

I thank you for the courtesy of your co-operation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

William M. Milliken
